Walking on the Sea

After feeding the five thousand, Jesus told His disciples to get into a ship and go ahead of Him to the other side. He went up into a mountain alone to pray. The disciples were rowing across the sea when a strong wind began to blow, and the waves became rough.

In the middle of the night, Jesus came walking on the sea toward them. The disciples were afraid and thought He was a spirit. But Jesus spoke to them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

Peter answered, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. Jesus said, Come. Peter stepped out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind and waves, he became afraid and began to sink. He cried out, Lord, save me! Jesus immediately reached out His hand and caught him, saying, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

When they got into the boat, the wind stopped. The disciples were amazed and worshipped Jesus, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.
