The Story of the Last Meal

On the first day of the Passover feast, Jesus sent His disciples to prepare a room in Jerusalem. That evening, Jesus sat at the table with His twelve disciples for a very special meal, His last supper with them before He went to the cross.

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, and broke it. He gave it to His disciples and said, “Take and eat; this is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me.”

Then Jesus took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you. This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.”

Jesus also told them sad and wonderful things: one of them would betray Him, but He would see them again. Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives. Christians still share the bread and the cup to remember Jesus and what He did for us.

3 Things to Remember

- ★ Jesus shared a last, special meal with His twelve disciples.
