The Story of the Ten Lepers

As Jesus was traveling to Jerusalem, He passed through a village where ten men with leprosy stood at a distance. They called out loudly, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

Jesus saw them and said, “Go, show yourselves unto the priests.” This was the way to be declared clean in their time. As they obeyed and went, something amazing happened they were healed! Their skin became clean, and their sickness was gone.

One of the ten men, when he saw that he was healed, turned back. He came to Jesus, praised God with a loud voice, and fell at His feet, thanking Him. This man was a Samaritan a person some Jews didn’t like, but Jesus welcomed him.

Jesus said, “Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?” Only one came back to give thanks. Then Jesus said to the thankful man, “Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.”
