The Story of the Wonderful Walk

On that same wonderful Sunday, two of Jesus' followers were walking to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were sad as they talked about everything that had happened: Jesus had died, and now some women said His tomb was empty!

As they walked, Jesus Himself came up and walked with them, but they did not recognize Him. He asked what they were talking about, and they told Him all about Jesus and their broken hopes.

Then Jesus explained to them what the Scriptures had said all along about Himself, from Moses and all the Prophets. As they listened, their hearts began to feel warm and full of hope!

When they reached the village, they begged the stranger, “Stay with us.” At the table, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them. Suddenly their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him; it was Jesus! Then He disappeared. They hurried back to Jerusalem, even though it was evening, to tell the others, “It is true! The Lord has risen!”

3 Things to Remember

- ★ The risen Jesus walked with two followers, but they did not know Him at first.
- ★ Jesus explained the Scriptures about Himself, and their hearts burned within them.
- ★ They recognized Jesus when He broke the bread, and ran to tell the others.
